

Occupational Profile

Biologist

NOC code(s): 2121.1

Interest code(s): LOD

Biologists conduct research to learn more about living organisms and ecosystems, manage natural resources, and develop new practices and products in such diverse fields as environmental conservation, medicine, pharmacology, forestry, forensics, nanotechnology, biosynthesis and pest control.

Also Known As

Botanist, Conservation Biologist, Fisheries Biologist, Marine Biologist, Naturalist, Research Scientist, Plant Biologist, Wildlife Biologist, Zoologist

Regulated Occupation

Summary

View Full Profile

Educational Requirements

4 years post-secondary education/training

More Information

Wage & Salary

Average Salary: $84,973.00
Average Wage: $45.86

More Information

Employment & Advancement

Occupational outlook is currently unavailable. Job openings are a result of employmen ...

More Information

Certification Requirements

Regulated

More Information

Related Occupations:

- Agrolgist
- Biochemist
- Biomedical Engineer
- Biotechnologist
- Conservation Officer
- Ecologist
- Entomologist
- Environmental Auditor
- Fish and Wildlife Officer
- Food Scientist
- Forensic Laboratory Analyst
- Geneticist
- Hazardous Waste Management Technologist
- Hydrologist
- Hydrometric Technician and Technologist
- Interpretive Naturalist
- Microbiologist
- Park Warden
- Pharmacologist
- Physiologist
- Pollution Control Technologist
- Toxicologist

The Government of Alberta is working in partnership with the Government of Canada to provide employment support programs and services.

alis.alberta.ca
CAREER PLANNING • EDUCATION • JOBS
» Make the most of your future

© 2001 - 2017 Government of Alberta